THE WEST INDIES.—An Evening Party.

LL4560

"WIDE-WIDE-WORLD" Series

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7048.

From "THE WEST INDIES," illustrated by A. S. Forrest (A. & C. Black).

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

An Evening Party. In the West Indies it is practically impossible to work or even amuse oneself during the mid-day hours. None but a thick-skulled negro can stand the heat. As soon, however, as the sun declines, amusements of all sorts are indulged in. Tennis, cricket, polo, and golfing are popular, and outdoor evening parties are favourite pastimes.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

C 1782